

Known Unknowns

Currently I am confused about the `loadings.A` and `loadings.B` objects that are returned by the `spr` function. I am not sure if I need to use both to reconstruct data. If both are needed how are they used (I am guessing it's something like

$$AXB^T$$

)